Customer Reviews

A single story runs throughout this wonderful book, with the protagonists (you) making your way through a monster-infested mansion. The story's narrative is intertwined with a description of how the puzzle-solver should do each maze (e.g., in one maze, you can't go past a monster with a red fork or a green tongue). The mazes are neat and fun. But I definitely needed to do them with my 4 year old. He's done many mazes, but these were way beyond his capacity at this point.

Monster Mazes (Maze Fun) Colorful illustrations and just complicated enough to challenge a seven-year old, but not so difficult that he can't conquer the maze. This book would be great for car trips.
