Customer Reviews

I don't believe this should be called a "first" dot-to-dot book. I purchased it for my 4yo who has shown an interest in numbers. Some of the puzzles go into the 50's and require long strokes, which require pencil control that most 4yo's don't have. It frustrated him. The puzzles and pictures are great, but it shouldn't be considered a "first" book unless your child is older and more versed in numbers.
