This is one of a series that are valuable as teaching tools. Each small book focuses on one artist, their life and the influences that shaped their art. It helps adults and young people understand a wide variety of styles, techniques and subjects in very simple terms.

There are not many children's books with information on Faith Rinngold so this one is very special.

Mike Venezia knows how to keep the attention of children who enjoy his fun comics within the story.

I am a teacher and ordered this book as a teaching resource. The book was in perfect condition and it was a painless transaction. I saved money by ordering it on .

This is an excellent book for any classroom! She is a great artist! My children loved it!

Great book, the students in my class loved it.

I loved this book and I would like to acquired the series of the other artists. The narration was simple and the illustrations of the artist's work was great.
