Customer Reviews

My daughter received this as a gift and we loved it so much that I bought it for two of her friends for their birthdays. The different activities can occupy a child for a long time and they can learn a lot from them. Whoever thought this up is very smart.

I bought this book for my brother-in-law who conducts games and doll exhibition each year in their showroom ([...]) located in Mysore, India to the public. He received great reviews about the exhibit from the visitors and also in National newspapers. I also bought other books listed below* Asian Games: The Art of Contest* Favorite Board Games You Can Make and Play* The illustrated guide to world chess sets* The World of Games: Their Origins and History, How to Play Them, and How to Make Them* Games Magazine Big Book of Games II: 10 Great Years* Games Magazine Big Book of Games* The Games We Played: The Golden Age of Board & Table Games* Board and Table Games from Many Civilizations* Classic Woodturning Projects with Bonnie Klein: 12

Skill-Building Designs* Oxford History of Board Games* The Game Makers: The Story of Parker Brothers, from Tiddledy Winks to Trivial Pursuit* The Book of Classic Board Games* My First Amazing Game Board Book* The New Complete Hoyle Revised

As a Special Ed teacher who also visits clients at home I really appreciated the compact packaging of this. The games and activities were well organized and thought through

I am so glad I purchased this - its the first think my grandchildren go for when they come visiting
