Customer Reviews

I thought this whole book was either popup or some kind of activity, but it's only at the end where you can take out the pieces and put it together. But once you take the pieces out, you can't put them back so there's a chance you could lose them. Story is simple and cute.

My 2 year old sons enjoy his book, though I was disappointed in the story. It's not the typical "mischief" story you would normally expect from Curious George, rather, it is a short description of George's ride on a train.

so cute and it even has a train track puzzle section in the back and the wheels on the front move.

The story line was not what I had from reading the information about the book. I was disappointed from that stand point. the moving wheels on the book are cute.

Grandson loves hearing the story and playing with the pop-out tracks at the end. Adds a little more playtime to bedtime. =)

Arrived with missing pieces from the back page, so, no fun there.

One of my son's favorite books! He loves the spinning wheels!
