My 7 year old son loves this series. He is always so excited to get his hands on a new book and with more than 50 of them it is easy to find new books. I have read some of these and they are great chapter books for those just beginning to read chapter books. Mary Pope Osborne does a great job weaving historical facts and interesting information throughout the adventures. Definitely a must read!

For those of you who have kids who love the magic tree house series like mine do, this is the latest installment and brings Jack and Annie into the realm of welsh legends of dragons. This book, unlike many of those that deal with real historical figures and times, is a bit more mystical, but still tons of fun. The tree house series is and remains a favorite, and this book does not disappoint.

My daughter loved this book and finished it within a couple days. She was super excited that I had preordered it and that it arrived the day it was released. She can't wait for when another Magic Tree House book comes out!

Got 2 of these books, for 2 grands, for Christmas. They're read all the other Tree House books, and this 4th one in the new series will be a hit, I kow!

My son was so excited about this book he actually finished reading it on his own and lived it.

Another magic treehouse book for my friend who loves this and all magic treehouse books.

We have all of the series, I keep buying even though my children are in their twenties, but this may be my last. The author added a puppy and constantly referred to it running away or barking, to the point of annoying.
