Customer Reviews

My 8 year old son saw this while we were in Walt Disney World for Spring Break and looked interested in it. So for Easter I ordered from . He loved this book! We are Disney nerds and travel there frequently. We know a lot of trivia and Walt's back story, but this was just great for my son. He really enjoyed it and had it read in no time...he's not typically a reader because he wants to read only if he has to for school. It was age appropriate and a level that he understood and had no trouble reading.

I bought this book for my 10 year old. Nicely written and not too long. (125 pages) The print is clear and double spaced. Sprinkling of illustrations and photos. Glad I bought this one. Kid liked it too.

Gave this book as a gift to my student who I tutored at the Boys & Girls Club. Hope he enjoyed since Disney is his idol.

Interesting reading found out alot about Walt Disney's early life.
