I love this calendar. Each month has a positive affirmation and a short paragraph about putting that affirmation into practice. I put this calendar in my kitchen so that I could look at the positive affirmations as I am going about my daily tasks. The pictures for the month are colorful and look like hand paintings. The pictures are beautiful; and each one, draws you deeper into that month's affirmation. I will definitely order this calendar again.

This is beautiful and inspiring, and it's the size of a regular wall calendar. I started writing some events on it the other day, and I realized too late that my writing imprinted later months. It's hard to explain, but the colors in the top images transfer onto the later month days if you press too much when you write in events. I tried to write very lightly, but it still happened. That makes it a little confusing to look at later months now. I haven't had a calendar do that before.

I have been taking Louise Hay's "Wall Calendar" for years: every month contains philosophic meditations together with positive assertions which allow me not to deviate from the path which is given to us in our human condition. The paintings of her collaborator are always very beautiful and full of sense (they are not abstracted, which allows not to complicate things). I have been reading and studying for years and years the books of Louise Hay (and her other pedagogical support such as cassettes at times when they were in use and then CDs & DVDs) which allowed me to increase my "tons" of consciousness in a totally unexpected and amazing way. In any case, it is clear that if we repeat positive affirmations all day long (even forcing oneself a little bit), we will be not likely to grind black or to become depressive: the fact of repeating positive affirmations all day long reduces the trend to gloominess. Many people will say that Louise's support and work have saved their lives.

Beautifully Done !

It's a calendar. It has 365 days and 52 weeks and 12 months and pretty pictures. My sister loves Louise Hay and requests one every Christmas, can't go wrong.

Beautiful, bright colored pictures and amazing, inspiring and empowering messages. Best wall calendar I ever had. You can reuse pictures for art piece or vision board.

Love it!!!! Love the affirmations and really love the beautiful art. It's a wonderful gift to yourself and for someone you love.
