Audubon Nature Calendar 2014

Synopsis

A peaceful spring vista on Echo Lake, Minnesota. The brilliant fall colors of aspens in the Wasatch Mountains. Sunrise over sandstone rocks at Red Rock Canyon. And Alaska's Takhinsha Mountains white with snow. A tribute to the glory and diversity of North America's wilderness, Audubon Nature highlights a dozen gorgeous landscapes in vibrant full color. This is America the beautiful, from sea (to desert to mountain to forest to wetland) to shining sea.

Customer Reviews

This calendar offers vibrant landscapes including desert, mountain, forest and wetland vistas. This 2014 calendar has six mountain scenes, three water scenes, two desert scenes and two forest scenes. Three scenes include snow. States covered include Arizona, Alaska, Hawaii, Minnesota, California, Tennessee, Oregon and Utah. The color is vivid. The calendar is printed on paper from responsible sources. There is also a free digital page-a-day calendar included with a code you enter. Here are the monthly locations in this calendar: JANUARY ~ Monument Valley, Arizona FEBRUARY ~ Takhinsha Mountains, Alaska MARCH ~ Kalalau Valley, Kauai Island, Hawaii APRIL ~ Echo Lake, Moose Lake State Park, Minnesota MAY ~ Red Rock Canyon State Park, California JUNE ~ Del Norte Coast Redwoods State Park, California JULY ~ Great Smoky Mountains National Park, Tennessee AUGUST ~ Northern California Coast, California SEPTEMBER ~ Organ Pipe Cactus National Monument, Arizona OCTOBER ~ Summer Lake State Wildlife Area, Oregon NOVEMBER ~ Wasatch Mountains, Utah DECEMBER ~ Grand Canyon National Park, Arizona

When you buy this calendar, you can feel good knowing that you are supporting the Audubon Society which works with conservation initiatives.

There isn't much to say about calendars. Yes, it shows all the months and it's numbered correctly. I'm not sure what else would be overly relevant. So, that leaves us with how it looks and that is where this calendar is better than others. I love the Audubon calendars because they have beautiful full color photos and this one lives up to my expectations. Every month features a stunning picture and there isn't even one that I don't like. For that, it gets five stars.

Every year our household purchases the Audubon Calendar together with An Ocean View Calendar (described elsewhere) This year we bought the Nature one. Every calendar from Audubon has something special to look at. This one has everything about Nature in this issue. The pictures are grand and I can imagine being there. On the bottom of each page I find different animals living at these places and that makes the calendar priceless.

If you like wonderful photos of some of our country's outstanding spots, this is a really nice calendar. And, if you like a wall calendar with no drawbacks (such as a spiral spine that marks the wall when you move it), a calendar with nice large-enough squares, then, this is a good choice. Glad I picked it for this year's organization and notation needs.

This 2014 Audubon Nature call calendar is INCREDIBLE! The pictures are stunningly magnificent. The printing and color reproduction is very well done for such an affordable calendar. Just like the National Parks calendar, this 2014 Nature calendar is great to have a window to nature in the world. Well worth the low cost if you like nature. Highly recommend!

I always try to find a calendar with a decent picture for my birth month (can never find one) but this one had one that I actually liked, it's sturdy enough to hang with one nail through it too, will probably get another next year.

I grab an Audubon Nature calendar every year. They're not too expensive, hang easily on my wall, have enough space in the days to write appointments & stuff, and the pictures are gorgeous. I'll keep buying them every year.

If you love great looking nature photography, then you will love the National Audubon Society's wall calendar. The proceeds from the sale of these items goes towards a group that is outstanding in the conservation of birds, other wildlife and healthy ecosystems dating back to 1905. Moreover, it looks great on the wall in your home or office.
