Audubon Songbirds & Other Backyard Birds Picture-A-Day Wall Calendar 2016

Synopsis

Hello, handsome Bohemian Waxwing perched on a snowy branch. A Baltimore Oriole in blazing orange and black. An American Robin feeding on holly berries. And a Western Bluebird surrounded by lilac blossoms on the cover. Audubon Songbirds & Other Backyard Birds Calendar offers America's 51 million birders hundreds of sightings for the year. With a large photograph at the top of each month's spread and smaller images throughout the grid below "all in full color" this is an exuberant celebration of the jewel-like songsters that alight on our bird feeders, flit through our yards, and bring music and joy to daily life.

Customer Reviews

I've ordered this calendar every year for my office probably for the past five or six years and I love it! I prefer to pay my own money to get this beautiful calendar instead of getting a plain freebie at work. Photos are awesome and colorful! It does NOT disappoint!

This is a truly beautiful and educational wall calendar...with about 25 color photos per month. This is the third year that I have bought one for myself. I have also given them as gifts to my little nieces and nephews (who seem genuinely pleased to receive the calendar).

I get this songbird calendar every year. It NEVER disappoints me. The photography is outstanding and the varieties of birds is amazing. It's beautiful and educational. If you love birds, you can't miss with this calendar!

My uncle buys one of these calendars for my dad every year...since we've moved out to the "country" with lots of trees and birds we decided to get one...we love it...we will be getting one every year now as well :) the pictures are gorgeous and there are so many of them for each month, not just the big picture at the top...there are well written factoid/blurbs that make it a pleasure to read/learn about the different types of birds... the size is just right and both my husband and i can now recognize so many more types of birds in our backyard...we're going to gift one to my in-laws this holiday season :) highly recommend you get one...you will love it, and it will more than likely become a tradition to get another one each year for you as well

The photos are beautiful, but the calendar part is way too busy with photos for my purposes. It would have been nice to have been able to see the actual calendar page to assess that before the purchase.

The pictures are absolutely beautiful. Having just finished the 2015 calendar, I couldn't bare the thought of throwing them away. I am going to send them to my grandchildren in another state, and predict that they will have hours and hours of fun sharing these gorgeous pictures. 2016 will be my third year, with many more to come, I certainly hope.

I purchase this calendar every year... It has great pics. and plenty of space to write the days activity in...

Wonderful calendar for any bird lover. Excellent photography of each bird for a day picture. And each bird is identified.
