I've used Louise Hay's Daily Affirmations calendars since 2006 and I don't think my day would be the same without their positive input. They are short and simple and deeply insightful at the same time - what more could you ask for? It's a daily reminder to keep in perspective what is really important.

I buy Louise Hay calendars every year. Her work is always uplifting and inspiring. I would recommend any of her books or calendars.

Louise Hay calendars always have a way of putting things into perspective for me at work. Some days her thoughts are exactly what I need.

As usual, the message of the calendar is great- for each day of the year, there is a page with one life-affirming idea/suggestion on it. However, the 2010 calendar features a modern "graphic" design-layered circles in tones of the same strange colors (dull oranges, avocado greens, maroon). There's no bright, colorful artwork this year. For me, half the appeal of the calendar is the artwork- as an amateur artist I always got as much out of the drawings/paintings of each day as I did from the message. But now it looks like a corporate calendar. Probably much better for people who use these at work, but if you were looking for the same cheery and bright imagery as the 2009 calendar, you might want to buy something else.

I have been purchasing this product for over sixteen years! I love this so much that I now buy at least fifteen at once and all my girlfriends get one for Christmas. This product is very uplifting and inspirational! Louise Hay product are the best!

A lovely and inspiring book to give your day a boost of brightness. I have bought it for myself and also as gifts for others.
