A must for any Jeopardy fan! I have bought this every Christmas for years for my Dad who is now 76yrs old. He has it on his nightstand and says it is the first thing he does when he wakes up in the morning!

I really like the Jeopardy Calendar and buy one every year. In 2014 I noticed the answer (question) was clearly visible on the front page. So if one is good at reading backwards one could read the answer. A simple solution would be to print the answer (question) on the other side of the word "Jeopardy". Our 2015 copy is likewise, so I put a line through it on each page. I know my husband would never cheat though.

A quick way to test your knowledge and impress your friends in your trivia league. It seemed kinda heavy on history, literature, and sports but that's probably just because I lost and I'm not well versed in those categories. Not that I'm bitter about losing or anything.

I'm really enjoying this calendar - I compete every week and I learn more when i don't know the answer. My only complaint is that I've used the reverse side of page-a-day calendars for notepaper - can't do that with these because the answer is printed right in the middle of the page. If it were moved to the edge, I could use the past days sheets for scratch paper. As it is I just throw them in the recycle bin.

If the 2014 version is like the 2012 and 2013 versions many of the small dollar answers will be hard and many of the high dollar answers will be easy, at least for us. This calendar is a fun way to start your day.

If you love Jeopardy and you love changing a calendar date every day then this product is going to absolutely blow your mind! If you just love Jeopardy and a 30 second distraction at work every day, then this will merely provide satisfaction and a bit of joy to your day. My husband and I each have one, and quiz each other every night, asking whether or not we knew the answer. It's our prelude to the show, which we DVR every night.

As a huge Jeopardy! fan, this calendar is spot on for a source of daily entertainment and a personal challenge for my son and I. We have been using this for about three years and each year, the questions are educational, fun and make for an enjoyable competition for the two of us. If you enjoy trivia, I would recommend this to you - it's fun to keep score too!

This is our second year with a Jeopardy calendar. Someone reads the question every night at dinner, and we all guess at the answer. Some are easy, some are just silly, and some lead to fun discussions. (Who knew, for instance, that there's a ballet featuring the music of the Beach Boys?) Fun.
