Great Scenes From Shakespeare's Plays (Dover Classic Stories Coloring Book)

Synopsis

Hamlet in the graveyard, musing over the skull of Yorick the jester; Juliet on her balcony and Romeo in the courtyard below, exchanging rapturous reflections on their new-found love; mad King Lear, railing at the elements in the midst of a howling storm upon the heath – these and other immortal scenes from Shakespeare’s best-known and most-loved works appear in this unique coloring book. Colorists of all ages will thrill to these finely-rendered depictions of memorable tableaux from Macbeth, Othello, Julius Caesar, Antony and Cleopatra, The Merchant of Venice, Richard III, Twelfth Night, and other famous plays by the Bard. Summaries of the plays, selections from the appropriate text, and captions accompany the illustrations. Texts include Portia’s courtroom speech, “The quality of mercy is not strain’d”; Marc Antony’s elegy for the assassinated Caesar, “Friends, Romans, countrymen, lend me your ears”; the sleepwalking Lady Macbeth’s lament over her blood-stained hands, “Out, damned spot!”; and numerous other oft-quoted lines.

Customer Reviews

This is a beautifully illustrated coloring book for young and old. Teach your children about the arts while they enjoy coloring. Great gift idea.

I liked the idea for the book--exquisite poetry facing their illustrations--but the illustrations are too poor to represent some of the greatest poetry in the history of man.

Handy educational tool. The art is little outdated and hard to color with but the idea of having coloring books with Shakespeare is great.

What a great and fun idea. I bought this for a couple of the students. They loved it and still talk about it.
