24-Carat Commercials For Kids: Everything Kids Need To Know To Break Into Commercials (Hollywood 101)

Synopsis

24-Carat Commercials for Kids: Everything Kids Need To Know to Break into Commercials, written by Chambers Stevens, Los Angeles' #1 kids acting coach, is packed with detailed descriptions of just what kids must do to win a career in commercials. This includes basic requirements for training + preparation, presentation materials such as resumes for beginners/pros (with examples) and photos (with examples), instructions for obtaining a work permit and 101 commercials for practice. Interviews are presented with three Hollywood commercial industry heavyweights - a casting director, an agent and a commercial director- discussing current industry requirements for young actors. Also included: Chambers' commercial audition Do's and Don'ts, a glossary of industry terms, a chapter on how to get an agent, names and addresses of top commercial agencies for young actors within active industry regions around the US, storyboard example and an index. The book is written for children to read and understand. The incorporated commercials require a minimum of props and work in impromptu settings. Great for classroom, variety talent shows, parties, competitions, and ultimately, auditions.

When my mother gave me this book I was bummed. But when I read it I was happy! It was funny and very helpful. I followed it and got an agent. And then I got a Pepsi commercial. I think 24

CARAT COMMERCIALS is great!

I bought this for my son, as well as the scene book for kids, and he hasn't put them down! They're a really good resource for kids who are interested in acting. I've also noticed that his memorization skills have improved since I got him these books. If you have a child interested in acting, I highly recommend both books.

I met Chambers in Hollywood last winter and my mom bought me his books. I used commercials from this book to get me a great agent! Chambers is also the best acting coach in the world and a really cool and funny dude! His books rock! His books help you get an agent and a job. GP

My daughter is a young aspiring actress and I have purchased multiple books from the Hollywood 101 series by Chambers Stevens. When we first started to pursue her dreams, I was extremely overwhelmed and finding good monologues/commercials for her was beyond difficult. I was new to the whole scene and had no clue about anything. Chambers' books proved to be extremely useful. They provided a variety of good material for my daughter to use and practice. They also provided me with great information on the whole "show business" scene. And the best part of it all is that Chambers knows what he is talking about, knows what those in the field are looking for, and has the experience to back it all up. I highly recommend this series for anyone working with young aspiring actors as it helped my daughter sign with a hollywood agency.

This book has helped us improve our acting skills. The commercials are fun to act out and there are so many to choose from. This book is one you should own if you are new or old to this business.

All of Chambers' books are great and this one is no exception. It's full of useful information about getting into commercials. Practice the commercials in the book and go audition!

Get this book if you want to be ready to audition for commercials. Read it and practice the material and you will be ready to book. I would recommend it to anyone. It works!!!

After buying several of the Hollywood 101 books - we were waiting for this one and it was worth the wait! Great information for kids and for parents!
